Judges will be held responsible for their actions and behaviour at all times..
- b) The committee of the GCCFV wishes to impress upon judges the great responsibilities they assume when judging at any cat show or exhibition. The judge is not only the one who gives far reaching decisions on the merit of the cats; as well, he or she is the representative, on the occasion, of GCCFV.
- c) The position is one of importance, being an example to all, and a strong influence on the future of the breeds. It requires dignity, discretion and presentation to be in keeping with GCCFV standards, codes of conduct and policies.
- d) The GCCFV insists that due respect be paid to Judges by exhibitors and others. For that reason it expects all Judges to merit respect through their own dignified and courteous bearing. The GCCFV is determined to take prompt and effective action in all cases of discourtesy to or by judges.
- e) Judges must be fully conversant with the Show Standards adopted by the GCCFV and when officiating at shows must at all times judge in accordance with them. When judging interstate or overseas they must make themselves conversant with the Show Standard and any particular Show Rules adopted by the particular club for which they are judging.

- g) Before accepting an assignment, judges should ascertain that the fixture is to be held under GCCFV rules, or has been sanctioned by GCCFV, or a recognised control under the affiliation of ACF or CCCA. Judges should notify GCCFV upon receipt and acceptance of all non-GCCFV and non-GCCFV affiliate Club assignments.
- h) Judges, by reason of their position of responsibility, owe it to all concerned to report immediately to the GCCFV representative if approached directly or indirectly by any person seeking to influence their placement of any exhibits.
- i) It is important for all Judges to be aware that they have a duty to withhold challenge certificates, or any other prize, from any exhibit which they consider is not of sufficient merit in meeting the standard for that breed. - l) During a period of suspension a Judge may not accept judging assignments or sign contracts for the post-suspension period.
- m) If a Judge is suspended, all contracts signed prior to the date of the suspension are null and void, and must be re-negotiated with the contracting club or association.
